Film Discussion:

The Fall

July 12, 2017
6:00 p.m.

Check out the movie from the library and join us in a discussion of The Fall, a film by Tarsem. Epic in scope and production (shot in over 20 separate countries), Roger Ebert claims "You might want to see for no other reason than because it exists. There will never be another like it." A summary of the film: In a hospital on the outskirts of 1920s Los Angeles, an injured stuntman begins to tell a fellow patient, a little girl with a broken arm, a fantastic story of five mythical heroes. Thanks to his fractured state of mind and her vivid imagination, the line between fiction and reality blurs as the tale advances.
